If you communicate with us through WhatsApp, please do so responsibly. Please read the application's privacy policy and configure it according to your preferences before sending any personal data. 2. Commercial communications and advertising content

SANKYO DESARROLLOS TECNICOS, S.L. informs users that, if they already have a contractual relationship with us, we will send them information about our products and/or services (including advertising and/or commercial communications for the purposes of article 21 of the Law on Information Society Services and Electronic Commerce 34/2002) based on our legitimate interest. If you do not want us to send you this type of information and want us to stop processing your data for these purposes, please send an email in this regard to info@sankyo-sdt.com and we will do so, although we may keep your data blocked for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. The withdrawal of your consent for us to send this type of communication does not affect the processing of your data for the other purposes described in the privacy policy.

If there is no pre-existing contractual relationship with us, in accordance with Recital 47 of the European General Data Protection Regulation, our legitimate interest to send you information concerning our activities, products and/or services (by traditional or electronic means) may constitute a legal basis for the processing of your data, provided that your interests or your rights and freedoms do not prevail, bearing in mind the reasonable expectations you had about us sending this information at the time and in the context in which you provided your personal information; for example, if you provided us with a business card at a trade fair or during a business visit, or sent us an email or contacted us asking for information, or made a request on our website, etc.

However, your interests and fundamental rights will always prevail over our legitimate interest if, when you provide us with your data, you do not reasonably expect us to, or do not directly wish us to, send you this type of informational or commercial communication. Therefore, said communications (if they are via email), will include, in the message itself, the option to unsubscribe to no longer receive them. If you choose this option, we will stop sending you this type of communication in the future.
